

To the 2019 academic year graduating students,

Cancellation of the 2019 Academic Year Commencement Ceremony
St. Luke's International University

Tsuguya Fukui
President
St. Luke's International University

It is with great sorrow that we must inform you all that the university's commencement ceremony previously scheduled for March 10, 2020 has been cancelled to prevent any spread of the coronavirus infection. While the decision to cancel such an important occasion was difficult to make, it was made with the utmost consideration to the health and safety of the students and their families.

While the university-wide ceremony has been cancelled, the College of Nursing and the graduate programs will be taking the following measures regarding degree conferment. We will be notifying all graduating students with more details via campus mail at a later time.

College of Nursing (Degree Conferment)

Date and Time: March 10, 10:00AM – 11:20AM

Location: Alice C. St. John Memorial Hall, St. Luke's International University

(Attendees shall be restricted to only the graduating students and faculty. We ask that all current students and family refrain from attending.)

Transfer Students, College of Nursing (Degree Conferment)

Date and Time: March 10, 11:30AM – 12:00PM

Location: Alice C. St. John Memorial Hall, St. Luke's International University

(Attendees shall be restricted to only the graduating students and faculty. We ask that all current students and family refrain from attending.)

Graduate School of Nursing Science (Degree Conferment)

Date and Time: March 10, 1:00PM – 3:00PM

Location: Alice C. St. John Memorial Hall, St. Luke's International University

(Attendees shall be restricted to only the graduating students and faculty. We ask that all current students and family refrain from attending.)

Graduate School of Public Health

Degree conferment will be done individually.

We would like to express our sincerest gratitude for your understanding during this difficult period.
